

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE SEVENTH CIRCUIT

Everett McKinley Dirksen
United States Courthouse
Room 2722 - 219 S. Dearborn Street
Chicago, Illinois 60604

Office of the Clerk
Phone: (312) 435-5850
www.ca7.uscourts.gov

NOTICE OF ORAL ARGUMENT

October 24, 2024

No. 24-1427	JEANNE HEDGEPEETH, Plaintiff - Appellant v. JAMES A. BRITTON, et al., Defendants - Appellees
Originating Case Information:
District Court No: 1:21-cv-03790 Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division District Judge Manish S. Shah

IT IS ORDERED that this case be orally argued on Thursday, December 12, 2024, at 9:30 a.m. in the Main Courtroom, Room 2721, of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit, 219 S. Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Each side limited to 15 minutes. Counsel are advised that the panel of judges assigned to oral argument may decide, after reading the briefs, that less time is required for oral argument.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that counsel notify the Calendar Clerk who will present oral argument by completing the oral argument confirmation form and filing an electronic copy of the completed form through the Electronic Case Filing (ECF) System. Notice of this case entry must be received in the clerk's office no later than 5 days prior to the scheduled argument date.

Option to Present Argument Telephonically or by Video Communications: The assigned panel may, in its discretion, permit counsel to present oral argument telephonically or by a video-communications platform approved by the court. Not later than 14 days before the argument date, and after conferring with opposing counsel, a party may file a motion to present oral argument telephonically or by video communications. The motion shall: (1) state the reason for the request; (2) state whether the request is opposed or unopposed; and (3) identify which counsel wish to appear remotely.

Waiver of Oral Argument: Not later than 14 days before the argument date, counsel may file a motion under Circuit Rule 34(e) to waive oral argument if the appeal can be resolved based on the briefs and record and the decisional process would not be significantly aided by oral argument. See Fed. R. App. P. 34(a). Counsel must first confer with opposing counsel before seeking a waiver of oral argument, and the motion must state whether the request is opposed or unopposed. The court prefers joint motions.

Copies of this notice have been sent to counsel of record.

NOTE: Please review the attached "Special Notice to Counsel Who Will Present Oral Argument" for important requirements and information about oral argument in the Court of Appeals.

form name: c7_NoticeOfOralArg (form ID: 156)

SPECIAL NOTICE TO COUNSEL WHO WILL PRESENT ORAL ARGUMENT

1. Approximately seven days before the scheduled argument date, the Clerk's Office will email counsel for all parties to confirm their attendance. Counsel must respond to the email within two business days to confirm they will be appearing to present oral argument. If counsel is arguing remotely, the Clerk's Office will email instructions and a link for a Zoom practice session approximately three days before the scheduled argument date.
2. Every attorney who orally argues an appeal must be admitted to practice in this court. Circuit Rule 46(a). Government attorneys are exempted from this requirement. Circuit Rule 46(c).
3. Counsel presenting oral argument must check in at the Clerk's Office at least 15 minutes prior to their scheduled time. The panel of judges and the order of cases to be argued are posted online and on the bulletin board outside the courtroom by 9:00 a.m. each day the court is in session.
4. Because oral arguments occasionally end before their allotted time expires, counsel is expected to be in the courtroom during the argument of the case immediately preceding theirs. Please be prepared to move to the appropriate counsel table for the commencement of your argument.
5. Counsel presenting oral argument must sit at the appropriate counsel table when the case is called for oral argument. When facing the bench, appellant's counsel table is on the left and appellee's counsel table is on the right. Counsel should remain seated at counsel table during their opponent's entire argument.
6. In planning your oral argument, please keep in mind that the judges have read the briefs. Lengthy expositions of the facts should be avoided, unless requested by the court. Please do not initiate your argument with a recitation of who will be splitting time with whom and/or how much time you have decided to reserve for rebuttal. The judges will already have this information.
7. A timer on the podium will light up green once it starts counting down from the total argument time, it will light up yellow when there is one minute remaining, and it will light up red once the time has expired. Appellant's counsel must keep track of the allotted time and notify the panel when they wish to reserve the remaining time for rebuttal. The court will NOT stop the timer once counsel reaches their rebuttal time. If counsel does not stop themselves, counsel risks arguing through their entire allotted time and losing their planned rebuttal time.
8. Appropriate attire for counsel is conservative business dress in traditional dark colors (e.g., navy blue or charcoal gray).
9. Counsel may use laptops and smartphones in the courtroom and lawyers' room but must ensure they do not make any noise. All cellular phones must be set to silent mode. Cameras are not allowed. Wi-fi is available in the lawyers' room.
10. The court is handicapped accessible. It will provide reasonable accommodations to persons with communications disabilities. It will also provide sign language interpreters or other auxiliary aids and services to participants in oral arguments who are deaf, hearing impaired, or have communication disabilities. The court may provide these services to others, including spectators, only if the court deems it appropriate.

Participants who require these services must contact the Clerk's Office at (312) 435-5850 at least three weeks prior to oral argument to allow the Clerk adequate time to make necessary arrangements. Anyone providing their own services, at their own expense, should advise the Clerk's Office at least two days prior to oral argument so proper accommodations can be made in the courtroom.

Thank you for your cooperation.
Christopher G. Conway, Clerk of Court

It is important that you arrive EARLY to the courthouse. You will be required to present photo identification to court security personnel when going through security screening.

Thank you,
U.S. Court of Appeals